

Fellow Member Applications Now Open for 2024

A time to recognise significant contributions and dedication to either BANT or the profession.

Hello there,

The annual request for Fellow Member applications is now open for 2022. BANT wishes to recognise those members who have made a significant contribution to the nutritional therapy profession, or have advanced the practice of nutritional therapy, by inviting applications for the category of Fellow Member of BANT.

Fellow is the highest grade of membership of BANT. Fellows of BANT may use the post-nominal FBANT. Applicants will normally have been full members of BANT for at least 5 years.

Member applications should be received by BANT by the 8th April 2024 and successful applications will be confirmed at the BANT AGM.

Follow this link to review the Fellow Member application Guidance Notes.

How to Apply

If you feel you have made a significant contribution to the profession and/or advanced the practice of nutritional therapy, and would like to be a candidate for the category of Fellow Member, then please provide the following:

- Completed Application Form - which must be signed and dated
- Updated CV
- A timeline detailing the roles and positions you have held that demonstrate your contributions to the profession, support of nutritional therapy practice or BANT
- Provide a 300 word statement demonstrating how you meet the assessment criteria
- References from two members of BANT in support of your application

Applications are assessed by BANT Council in April and you will be informed in writing whether your application has been successful or not by the 1st of May 2024.

If you would like to nominate a person you believe to be deserving of this award, please email generalmanager@bant.org.uk and we will contact them on your behalf.

Applications need to be received by BANT by the 8th of April 2023 by email to generalmanager@bant.org.uk.

Applications received after this date, or any incomplete applications, will not be considered.

We look forward to receiving your application.
