H. Pylori or Acid Reflux? Let's Deep Dive the Research and Apply some Common Sense

Free and Live BANT Webinar with Dilkiran Kular co-founder of the innovative company Made By Daily Ltd and co-host of the growing YouTube and Podcast The Can I Be Candid Show in partnership with Made by Daily

Hello there,

We are delighted to announce the next BANT Partnership webinar of the autumn season for 2025. This month, we have education provided by Made by Daily.

Dilkiran Kular co-founder of the innovative company Made By Daily Ltd and co-host of the growing YouTube and Podcast The Can I Be Candid Show, will be discussing H. Pylori. Antibiotic-resistant microbes are on the rise, and H. Pylori has made its way onto the WHO's Top 20 list. Quadruple therapy is now being favoured over triple therapy, and we are seeing an increase in over-the-counter PPIs. However, what if there is a missing connection that is not just being overlooked but also disregarded? Histamine and Ammonium. These two key ions both play a role in our health, but too much is where the problem lies. So, what can we do? This comprehensive session delves into the often-overlooked connection and provides simple, actionable solutions for lasting relief.

Join Dilly on behalf of Made by Daily on Tuesday 4th of November 2025 from 13:00 - 14:00. The webinar is free and exclusive to BANT members.

Book Your Place Here!
