NED 2.0 Launch - What's new and How to Maximise the Functionality

Free and Live BANT Webinar Clare Grundel, NED Managing Editor, and the NED Editorial Board - 25 September at 12 noon

Hello there,

You've seen the new NED. Now it is time to learn what it can do for you and your clinical practice. Join us on the 25th of September at 12 noon for a live webinar presented by Clare Grundel, NED Managing Editor and joined by other members of the NED Editorial Board.

This webinar will focus on a live demonstration of the new database and will include:

- How to run searches and make use of the NED value-added material to focus your research
- How to use the AskAI function, the theory behind the functionality and the cautions to employ
- How to set up an account and the additional functionality provided to account holders
- How to access and share NED Infobites and NED Journals with your network.

This webinar will be recorded and made available to BANT members through the BANT Learning Zone, BANT Professional Support Category.

Register for the webinar here!

Please note: we have to manually approve webinar registrations. Please be patient – you will receive a link to join the webinar in plenty of time before the live event. We are unable to guarantee approval of registrations if made within one hour of the start time. When registering, please always include your BANT membership number which is available from your BANT dashboard. This speeds up the approval process. In future, any registration without a BANT number will be considered invalid.

For any enquiries, please email Clare at clare.grundel@bant.org.uk.

Best wishes,
The BANT Webinar Team
